Brava presents
Un Río Dos Riveras

An afternoon with Guadalupe Rivera speaking about her father Diego Rivera

Sunday, June 17, 2018 – 3pm

Brava! for Women in the Arts presents a very special Father's Day afternoon featuring Guadalupe Rivera Marín, the daughter of Diego Rivera, speaking about growing up with her famous father in conversation with KPOO's Chelis Lopez. The talk will conclude with a Q&A.

Please also join us post-show for a reception with Guadalupe Rivera Marín in our Cabaret.

PLEASE NOTE: The conversation between Guadalupe and Chelis will be conducted mostly in Spanish, with English translation provided by a conversational interpreter.

GUADALUPE RIVERA MARÍN is Ph. D, lawyer, economist, university professor and defender of women's rights, and the daughter of renowned muralist Diego Rivera. Ms. Rivera is the Founder and Board Chair of the Diego Rivera Foundation and has been an Honorary Trustee at The Mexican Museum since September 2014. She is the author of several books, including Un Río dos Riveras, the testimony of the relationship between a father and his daughter. In this book, Rivera writes about her father's feelings and moods; the anger and eccentricities of a genius of art, but also the sensitivity of a man who knew how to live up to the political and social circumstances of his time.

CHELIS LOPEZ is the host and producer of KPOO 89.5FM programs Pajaro Latinoamericano and Andanzas. She is also host of the Línea Abierta show on Radio Bilingue, the National Latino Public Radio Network, and for over ten years, has moderated the Spanish reading group “Rincón Literario” at the San Francisco Public Library main branch.
